

The MHI CTE Educators Summit is a highly interactive event specifically for instructors, program directors, and associations in the area of material handling, logistics, and supply chain. Educators from across the country will be introduced to the latest instructional materials, teaching techniques, and partnership opportunities to advance their career and technical education programs.

Location

Embassy Suites by Hilton Pittsburgh Downtown
535 Smithfield St, Pittsburgh, PA 15222

Cost to Attend

Free! For educators, MHI will cover registration fees, hotel accommodations and most meals during the event. MHI members and industry partners are invited to attend the “Member-Educator Partnership Day” on Wednesday, July 10th. All participants are responsible for their own expenses to travel to/from the event.
