Pieter Hannessen hands over daily management of Qimarox and Nedpack

Founder of Nedpack and Qimarox, Pieter Hannessen has handed over the daily management to the current sales director Martijn Smit. The transfer of leadership comes after several years of growth, both in turnover and size of the organisation. As Managing Director, Martijn Smit will be responsible for Qimarox, Nedpack and Nedpack Services. Pieter Hannessen, who has spent 22 years at the helm, will certainly remain active and is part of the management team. The management team consists of Martijn Smit, Sander West and Pieter Hannessen.

About Qimarox

Qimarox is a leading manufacturer of components for material handling systems characterised by ruggedness and reliability. Innovative concepts, patented technologies, and continuous development allow Qimarox to manufacture product lifts, palletisers and packaging machines that combine flexibility and productivity with a low total cost of ownership. System integrators and original equipment manufacturers from across the globe use the machinery of Qimarox in end-of-line systems and storage and order picking systems in various industries.
