

WHO IS OPEN SKY GROUP?

Open Sky Group specializes in services for warehouse, labor and transportation management systems (WMS, WLM and TMS). With highly experienced global resources, we strive every day to be the best consulting partner on the planet. Open Sky Group's talented consultants use their deep experience and skills to make sure clients get the best possible results. We make each client a promise that we stand behind the work we do; we are committed to our clients' success.

OPEN SKY GROUP EXPERTISE

Open Sky Group is best known for its deep expertise with JDA Software products. Our focus is on reducing the time it takes to implement JDA software so that our clients get up and running on their new system faster, and see benefits more quickly. Using a project methodology based in Agile Scrum principles, Open Sky Group is constantly revisiting this approach to find ways to be faster and more efficient. Our goal is to help clients get the most from their software investment through workable and stable solutions to supply chain software challenges.
